	CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
	INFORMATION REPORT 25X1
JNTRY	Bulgaria
BJECT	Bulgarian Housing Problems
	25X1
	DATE DISTR. 25 Feb 195
	This Minist Contains infilmation Affective fine national Defension NO. OF PAGES 1
	THE THE PRITED STATES. BITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 10. SECTIONS 783 AND 794, OF THE W.S. CODE, AS AMENDED. 175 TRANSMISSION OR REVE. NO. OF ENCLS.
	CATION OF 118 CONTENTS TO 08 SECTIFY BY AN UNAMPHODISED PERSON 15 PROMISELED BY AND. THE SEPREDUCTION OF THIS SEPRET IS PERSONALITY. SUPP. TO THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION REPORT NO.
1.	In all Bulgarian towns of any importance, all housing is now strictly controlled by the Communist Party. Each municipal council has a special commission, known as the "Gilfond". All available lodging is registered in its books. Any one looking for a place to live has to go to this commission.
2.	by the Communist Party. Each municipal council has a special commission, known as the "Gilfond". All available lodging is registered in its books. Any one looking for a place to live has to go to this commission. The sum of two leva is charged for each request and the paper also carries a four leve stamp. Requests are presented in triplicate and must describe the famil situation of the individual making application.
	by the Communist Party. Each municipal council has a special commission, known as the "Gilfond". All available lodging is registered in its books. Any one looking for a place to live has to go to this commission. The sum of two leve is charged for each request and the paper also carries a four leve stamp. Requests are presented in triplicate and must describe the family
2.	by the Communist Party. Each municipal council has a special commission, known as the "Gilfond". All available lodging is registered in its books. Any one looking for a place to live has to go to this commission. The sum of two leva is charged for each request and the paper also carries a four leva stamp. Requests are presented in triplicate and must describe the famil situation of the individual making application. The commission studies there requests primarily on a Party basis, rather than on a basis of necessity. The requests are eventually brought before a special beauting tribunal, which makes the final decision. The tribunal is, however,
2.	by the Communist Party. Each municipal council has a special commission, known as the "Gilfond". All available lodging is registered in its books. Any one looking for a place to live has to go to this commission. The sum of two leva is charged for each request and the paper also carries a four leva stamp. Requests are presented in triplicate and must describe the famil situation of the individual making application. The commission studies there requests primarily on a Party basis, rather than on a basis of necessity. The requests are eventually brought before a special beauting tribunal, which makes the final decision. The tribunal is, however,
2.	by the Communist Party. Each municipal council has a special commission, known as the "Gilfond". All available lodging is registered in its books. Any one looking for a place to live has to go to this commission. The sum of two leva is charged for each request and the paper also carries a four leva stamp. Requests are presented in triplicate and must describe the famil situation of the individual making application. The commission studies there requests primarily on a Party basis, rather than on a basis of necessity. The requests are eventually brought before a special housing tribunal, which makes the final decision. The tribunal is, however, directly under the influence of the Communist Party.
2.	by the Communist Party. Each municipal council has a special commission, known as the "Gilfond". All available lodging is registered in its books. Any one looking for a place to live has to go to this commission. The sum of two leva is charged for each request and the paper also carries a four leva stamp. Requests are presented in triplicate and must describe the famil situation of the individual making application. The commission studies there requests primarily on a Party basis, rather than on a basis of necessity. The requests are eventually brought before a special housing tribunal, which makes the final decision. The tribunal is, however, directly under the influence of the Communist Party.
2.	by the Communist Party. Each municipal council has a special commission, known as the "Gilfond". All available lodging is registered in its books. Any one looking for a place to live has to go to this commission. The sum of two leva is charged for each request and the paper also carries a four leva stamp. Requests are presented in triplicate and must describe the famil situation of the individual making application. The commission studies there requests primarily on a Party basis, rather than on a basis of necessity. The requests are eventually brought before a special housing tribunal, which makes the final decision. The tribunal is, however, directly under the influence of the Communist Party.
2.	by the Communist Party. Each municipal council has a special commission, known as the "Gilfond". All available lodging is registered in its books. Any one looking for a place to live has to go to this commission. The sum of two leva is charged for each request and the paper also carries a four leva stamp. Requests are presented in triplicate and must describe the famil situation of the individual making application. The commission studies there requests primarily on a Party basis, rather than on a basis of necessity. The requests are eventually brought before a special housing tribunal, which makes the final decision. The tribunal is, however, directly under the influence of the Communist Party.
2.	by the Communist Party. Each municipal council has a special commission, known as the "Gilfond". All available lodging is registered in its books. Any one looking for a place to live has to go to this commission. The sum of two leva is charged for each request and the paper also carries a four leva stamp. Requests are presented in triplicate and must describe the famil situation of the individual making application. The commission studies there requests primarily on a Party basis, rather than on a basis of necessity. The requests are eventually brought before a special housing tribunal, which makes the final decision. The tribunal is, however, directly under the influence of the Communist Party.
2.	by the Communist Party. Each municipal council has a special commission, known as the "Gilfond". All available lodging is registered in its books. Any one looking for a place to live has to go to this commission. The sum of two leva is charged for each request and the paper also carries a four leva stamp. Requests are presented in triplicate and must describe the famil situation of the individual making application. The commission studies there requests primarily on a Party basis, rather than on a basis of necessity. The requests are eventually brought before a special housing tribunal, which makes the final decision. The tribunal is, however, directly under the influence of the Communist Party.
2. 3.	by the Communist Party. Each municipal council has a special commission, known as the "Gilfond". All available lodging is registered in its books. Any one looking for a place to live has to go to this commission. The sum of two leva is charged for each request and the paper also carries a four leva stamp. Requests are presented in triplicate and must describe the famil situation of the individual making application. The commission studies there requests primarily on a Party basis, rather than on a basis of necessity. The requests are eventually brought before a special housing tribunal, which makes the final decision. The tribunal is, however, directly under the influence of the Communist Party.
2. 3.	by the Communist Party. Each municipal council has a special commission, known as the "Gilfond". All available lodging is registered in its books. Any one looking for a place to live has to go to this commission. The sum of two leva is charged for each request and the paper also carries a four laws stamp. Asquests are presented in triplicate and must describe the familiaritation of the individual making application. The commission studies these requests primarily on a Party basis, rather than on a basis of necessity. The requests are eventually brought before a special housing tribunal, which makes the final decision. The tribunal is, however, directly under the influence of the Communist Party. -end-

Approved For Release 2005/08/17 : CIA-RDP80-00809A000500800176-6